- (i) After the settlement of the disputes, if any, in respect of the amount originally due from the Government to the original subscribers, or otherwise, if it is found that Power Bonds of more value than the amount so due from the Government to the original subscribers, have been issued to the original subscribers, Government may at any time before the transfer of Power Bonds by the original subscribers to any person, cancel with effect from 1.10.2001, such excess Power Bonds in consultation with Reserve Bank of India.
- (ii) On the cancellation of the Power Bonds under clause (i), the original subscribers shall pay to Government, an amount of interest calculated at the rate of 12% per annum on the face value of the cancelled bonds.

2.8 Transferability of Power Bonds

- (i) The Power Bonds may be renewed, sub-divided, consolidated and transferred in accordance with the provisions of the Public Debt Act, 1944 (or any other Act repealing the Public Debt Act, 1944), the Public Debt Rules, 1946 framed there under (or any other Rules repealing the Public Debt Rules, 1946) and the terms of this Notification and any further notification which may be issued by the Government from time to time in this behalf. However the original subscribers to the Power Bonds can transfer the Bonds subject only to specific prior approval of Reserve Bank of India regarding the specific Bonds and amounts thereof that can be so transferred.

- (ii) Transfer of the Power Bonds to/by Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs), will be subject to SEBI (FIIs') Regulations and those to/by Non-Resident Indians (NRIs) and Overseas Corporate Bodies pre- dominantly owned by NRIs, will be subject to guidelines issued under Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999.

2.9 Laws applicable in regard to the Power Bonds

- (i) The rights of all persons subscribing to or holding the Power Bonds shall be determined with all such questions as are dealt with by the Public Debt Act, 1944 (or any other Act repealing the Public Debt Act, 1944) and the public Debt Rules, 1946 (or any other Rules repealing the Public Debt Rules, 1946) read with the terms of this Notification and such other notification as may be issued from time to time or by the terms of Press Release/s as may be issued in future by Reserve Bank of India, in consultation with Government in this regard.
- (ii) The provisions of the Tax Laws for the time being enforce in India will be applicable for the purposes of assessing and determining the liability of the investor or holder of the Power Bonds. However, in terms of Government of India's Notification No. 158/2003/F.No. 200/10/2003-ITA. I, dated 27th June, 2003, the interest on Power Bonds is exempt from Income Tax.
- (iii) Any dispute in relation to the Power Bonds shall be decided by the Courts in India.

3 Special Conditions

- (i) The servicing of the bonds will not be undertaken during the period of stoppage of payments on behalf of the State Government as per the Overdraft Regulation Scheme.
- (ii) The Bonds can be sold in the market by the original subscribers only with specific prior approval of the Reserve Bank of India on each occasion, to the extent agreed upon. Provided howsoever that the Reserve Bank of India shall not grant such approval before the settlement of disputes, if any, in respect of the amount due from the Government to the original subscribers and reconciliation thereof. These bonds will be treated by Reserve Bank of India as SLR securities when acquired by banks/institutions in the secondary market.

- (iii) No other person including any bank, company, corporation or any other body, except the Companies as referred in the Annex-I, shall be eligible for initial subscriptions to the Power Bonds.
